

PRESS RELEASE
July 26, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THERAPY DOG TO HAVE A BOOK SIGNING

Bradenton, FL. – July 26, 2010 – Mr. Miagi, registered therapy pet and author, will be signing his book on Friday, August 13, 2010 from 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. in the gift shop of Blake Medical Center.

Mr. Miagi is a passionate teacher. He knows that we are all uniquely beautiful. He shares his journey of self-discovery and growth in a book for all ages –

Mr. Miagi asks “What would you do?”* The book has a beautiful lesson for all of us.

It is the perfect tool to get families and students talking about diversity, acceptance and self-esteem. Mr. Miagi, a funny looking dog with a mission, was once just a misunderstood pooch. Today, Mr. Miagi uses what he’s learned in life to make the world a better place.

You are invited to come meet this very special canine author and have your copy of his book personally signed by Mr. Miagi himself, on Friday, August 13, 2010 from 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. in the gift shop of Blake Medical Center, Bradenton Florida. All proceeds from the sale of Mr. Miagi’s book to benefit the Medical Scholarship Fund.

Not only will you benefit from the purchase of a Mr. Miagi book, so will our scholarship recipients!